AGED TO PERFECTION

A lively, social community of theater-loving adults 55+, Aged to Perfection (ATP) brings together longtime members and newcomers alike. Twice a month—on the second and fourth Saturday at 10AM—the group gathers to read scripts, explore new skills, and enjoy the creative spark that comes from shared story-telling. Readers Theater performances are produced periodic-ally, giving those who love to be onstage plenty of opportunities to shine. For anyone not ready to perform, there are countless meaningful ways to contribute: ushering, stage management, lights, sound, and other behind-the-scenes roles that keep a show running smoothly. At the heart of it all is a supportive environment where people can learn, grow, connect, and have fun.

What did you enjoy the most about being a part of this show?

"I love that the audience has a starring role." – Betsy Dillon

What do you love most about your character?

"I love her money, but not her men." – Kathi Ivany

"He's both quirky and serious, and he gets to eat a lot!" – Eldon Horner

What's to love about this show?

"What's not to love? It's theater!" – Donald Kuehlhorn

What's the best thing about (ATP)?

"As a novice, the mutual respect shared by all." – Jef Marth

"I love to try on different characters on Saturday mornings and interact with new friends." – Laurie Hinners
